

Mid Term Test

English II-On line.

1. Make your own sentence, two sentences each concerning the following problems or topics
  - a. Subject-verb agreement → with difference tenses in each sentence
  - b. Verbals: → One sentence for an infinitive and another for a gerund (either as a subject or an object)
  - c. Multiple clause: → One sentence for compound sentence and the other for complex sentence
  - d. Adjective clause → one sentence connector as a subject and the other sentence connector as an object
  - e. Adverb clause → one sentence connector as adverb clause for time and one sentence as adverb clause for direct contrast
  - f. Parallel structure with coordinate conjunction → one sentence with additional conjunction and the other sentence with optional conjunction
  - g. Parallel structure with paired conjunction → one sentence with combining phrase statement and the other sentence with negation phrase statement
2. What are the kinds of sentence agreement in English based on the eight-part of speech?